

A Philanthropic Partnership for Black Communities

Janet Gumbs Bio

Janet Gumbs recently joined ABFE as the part-time Chief Financial Officer. Prior to joining ABFE, she was the Controller at the Partnership for Afterschool Education – a New York City non-profit organization.

She has over 20 years senior level experience in accounting and for the past 11 years has been involved in the Controllershship role of directing the accounting activities, planning cash flows and providing timely and accurate financial reports for decision-making for several non-profit organizations in New York City,

Ms Gumbs studied accounting at Accountancy Tutors in London, England where she gained a Bachelors degree in Accounting and an ACCA professional degree. She is a member of the Association of Chartered and Certified Accountants – ACCA. She also earned a Masters in Public Administration majoring in non-profit management from Baruch College.

Ms Gumbs has served as a fiscal consultant to non-profits in New York City, including PowerPlay NYC, National Domestic Workers Alliance and the Coalition Against Trafficking in Women. In her spare time she is a mentor to young college students.